PASSPORT TO PLAY IN UTAH'S STATE PARKS

Salt Lake City – Get your free copy of the Utah State Parks 2010 Passport Edition Field Guide, visit your favorite state park, or one you've never visited, and get your passport stamped. Visit all 41 participating parks from Anasazi State Park Museum in Boulder to Yuba State Park near Nephi.

Explore the world of dinosaurs at Utah Field House, set up camp at Starvation, golf at Palisade and discover petroglyphs at Fremont Indian State Park and Museum.

Plan your visit by checking out our events calendar. Utah's state parks host all types of events, from guided hikes and campfire programs, to star parties and scorpion hunts. Visit our website at stateparks.utah.gov and go to Things to Do.

Make your trip easier by purchasing a Utah State Parks Annual or Senior Pass for $75 or $35, respectively. Each pass allows the passholder and up to seven guests in the same private vehicle, day-use access for one year. Senior Passes are available to Utah residents 62 and over.

To order a Utah State Parks Field Guide, please call (801) 538-7220 or email parkcomment@utah.gov.
